The earliest known Jewish community in this town was end 18th century. The last known Sadgorskaya Hasidic burial was 1940. No other towns or villages used this unlandmarked cemetery. The isolated urban hillside has no sign or marker. Reached near center, access is open to all. No wall, fence, or gate surrounds the cemetery. No stones are visible. During World War II all tombstones were stolen. Locations of any removed stones are unknown. The cemetery has no special sections. The cemetery contains no known mass graves. Municipality owns property used for agriculture (crops or animal grazing). Properties adjacent are agricultural and residential. The cemetery boundaries are unchanged since 1939. Rarely, local residents visit. The cemetery was vandalized during World War II and frequently in the last ten years. There is no maintenance. Within the limits of the cemetery are no structures. Vegetation overgrowth is a constant problem, disturbing graves. Serious threat: uncontrolled access (Uncontrolled access lead to destruction of remaining graves.). Moderate threat: pollution, vegetation, existing and proposed nearby development. Slight threat: weather erosion.
